

European Local Democracy Week

Congress of Local and Regional Authorities of the Council of Europe

What is the European Local Democracy Week?

The “European Local Democracy Week” (ELDW) is a pan-European initiative that aims to boost dialogue between local authorities and citizens, to strengthen local democracy and to promote citizen participation.

Local and regional authorities from the 46 member states of the Council of Europe are invited to organise public events, with the aim of:

- ▶ Increasing citizens’ participation in decision-making at local level;
- ▶ Developing the dialogue between citizens and their elected representatives (Mayors, members of the municipal councils...);
- ▶ Introducing participatory mechanisms into our democratic systems.

Participants may choose to schedule their European Local Democracy Week and organise events at their convenience during the whole year. A flagship event can take place around the 15th of October as a tribute to the European Charter of Local Self-Government, which was opened for signature on that date in 1985.

The title of “Partner of the ELDW” recognises local authorities and associations which have undertaken the most effective activities to sustain local democracy.

The Congress of Local and Regional Authorities of the Council of Europe is responsible for coordinating the ELDW.
